PREAMBLE

This supplemental agreement is entered into by and between the Federal Prison Camp El Paso, Texas, hereinafter referred to as the employer, and the American Federation of Government Employees, Council of Prison Locals, Local 83, El Paso, Texas, hereinafter referred to as the Union.

In accordance with the provisions of the Master Agreement between the Federal Bureau of Prisons and the American Federation of Government Employees, Council of Prison Locals, this agreement shall be a supplement to the said Master Agreement.

Article 1 - Recognition

Section a: The employer recognizes the Union, Local 83, as the representative voice of all bargaining unit employees at FPC El Paso.

Article 2 - Joint Labor-Management Relations Meetings

Section a: It is understood that all persons involved in a Labor-Management relationship will assert themselves in a temperate, professional and courteous manner in their mutual dealings and will assume responsibility for conforming to appropriate standards of personal conduct.

Section b: Labor-Management Committee meetings will be held on a monthly basis as requested by either party. Additional meetings may be requested by either party within seven days of the request. Each party shall designate a spokesperson. Agenda items and representative names may be exchanged, and will be submitted three days prior to the meeting. Disputes as to the accuracy of minutes will be worked out between the spokespersons, or the minutes amended to reflect the disagreement.

Section c: The joint Labor-Management Committee will have as its purpose and shall give consideration of such matters as: the impact and implementation of rules, regulations and policies; the correction of conditions making for grievances and misunderstandings; the encouragement of good human relations in employee-supervisory relations; the promotion of education and training; the betterment of employee working conditions; the strengthening of employee morale; the implementations of equal employment opportunity; and other matters with the mutual consent of both parties.

Section d: The employer will semi-annually furnish the union an alphabetical list of the bargaining unit members. The employer will notify the union of employee's familiarization training schedules, to include the names of employees to receive such training.

Section e: Representatives of the union may be allowed to use the employer's copying equipment when such duplications support legitimate government interests. Approval will be by the Chief Executive Officer or designee.

Article 3 - Governing Regulations

See Master Agreement

Article 4 - Relationship of this Agreement to Bureau Policies, Regulations and Practices

See Master Agreement

Article 5 - Rights of the Employer

See Master Agreement

Article 6 - Rights of the Employee

Section a: The employer will make available for review to each unit employee a copy of all available health benefit brochures. Upon the employee's request, the employer will make a reasonable effort to obtain a brochure not on hand.

Section b: Upon approval/disapproval of a suggestion through the incentive awards committee, written notification of the decision and reason thereof will be given to the unit employee in a timely manner.

Article 7 - Rights of the Union

Section a: The employer agrees that the union may designate a representative to participate with management in orienting new employees on the role of the union. A lesson plan will be submitted and a minimum of 30 minutes will be allowed for union presentation. The employer agrees to notify the union president of the scheduled date at least three working days in advance.

Section b: At FPC El Paso, Vice President #2 is delegated authority over matters of concern. In this person's absence, #1 Steward will be delegated this authority.

Section c: Stewards shall be vested with sufficient authority to represent the union at the informal step in any matter of concern. Final decisions of the final resolution shall be the responsibility of an Executive Officer of the Union, as specified in section b.

Article 8 - Union Dues by Payroll Deduction

See Master Agreement

Article 9 - Negotiations at the Local Level

See Master Agreement

Article 10 - Union Representative on Committees

Section a: In promoting efficient and professional labor management relations, LAN will be accessible to the Union President to communicate with the Warden, his Executive Staff and departmental staff.

Article 11 - Official Time

See Master Agreement

Article 12 - Use of Official Facilities

Section a: The Training Building at Camp El Paso will be made available for the monthly meeting on the second Tuesday of the month beginning at 4:00 p.m.

Section b: The employer will furnish a lockable bulletin board at FPC El Paso solely for the union's utilization. The bulletin board will be located in a visible and accessible location.

Section c: The employer agrees to furnish each employee with an institution mail slot or "in" basket to be located within the employee's respective department.

Section d: The employer agrees that union representatives will be allowed to use the FTS phone system to discuss labor-management issues with union officials above the local level. This will normally be done in the union office.

Article 13 - Questionnaires

See Master Agreement

Article 14 - Employee Performance and Ratings

Section a: Entries in all performance logs will be typed or legibly written in ink.

Section b: When an employee is shown a new entry in his/her performance log, he/she will be given the opportunity to review all previous entries in his/her file for that rating period.

Section c: A bargaining unit employee will be given the opportunity to present evidence, in writing or any other form, when disputing an entry in his/her performance rating log prior to selecting the grievance procedure.

Article 15 - Outside Employment

See Master Agreement

Article 16 - Position Description and Review

See Master Agreement

Article 17 - Employee Personnel Files

See Master Agreement

Article 18 - Hours of Work

Section a: Any change in the principal shift (day watch, evening watch, morning watch) is subject to prior notification to the union.

Section b: Written requests from employees assigned to the sick and annual leave relief posts for assignment to a specific shift will be maintained in the two week roster file and will be considered by the Administrative Lieutenant.

Section c: The following guidelines will be used in assigning overtime to the Correctional Services Department. Preference will be given to correctional officers.

- 1) An overtime sign up form will be developed in concurrence with the union and management and implemented. Sign up will be every other week and maintained by the Administrative Lieutenant.
- 2) Officer's requesting overtime will provide their name (signature), telephone number, shift and day he/she is available for overtime.
- 3) A copy of this bi-weekly overtime sign up sheet will be provided to the union on a bi-weekly basis, and the completed original will be placed on the 30 day file at the end of that specific period.
- 4) Failure to contact an employee will not be considered a refusal to work overtime and his/her name will remain on the overtime list for the remainder of that period.
- 5) Periods of overtime performed in a trip status and periods of less than five (5) hours of overtime worked will be disregarded when rotating the sequence.

Section d: A reasonable effort will be made to post overtime on employee's time sheet no later than the following pay period.

Section e: Employees with valid meal tickets may take their meals from Food Service to their work area or staff lounge.

Article 19 - Annual Leave

Section a: A seniority list of bargaining unit employees for each department will be available upon request in each department. A copy of the seniority list will be furnished to the union.

Section b: In the event two (2) or more bargaining unit employees have the same seniority (as defined in Article 19, Section e of the Master Agreement), the employees' total civil service time will be computed.

Section c: All departments will notify the Vice President #2, or his designee, when scheduling annual leave for the year. The Union will designate a representative to participate in the leave scheduling. Attached Form 1A will be utilized by all bargaining unit employees for annual leave scheduling. The form should be completed by December 15th.

Section d: The final annual leave roster will be posted by January 15th.

Section e: When requesting leave on Form 1A during the total leave year scheduling, an employee may choose 1 or 2 consecutive weeks, not necessarily conforming to pay periods. At no time may more than 3 consecutive weeks be approved by the leave committee. As long as the department is not negatively impacted, requests for up to 3 weeks will be approved.

Section f: Prompt efforts will be made to inform the affected staff member when the employer receives notification of an emergency situation concerning the family of an on-duty employee. Every reasonable effort will be made to accommodate the employee's request as long as the request does not place an undue hardship on the orderly running of the institution.
